

Joint Meeting of the Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the AAPM and the 3rd annual DMV Proton Radiotherapy Symposium

October 24th - 25th, 2025

Georgetown University Medical Center
The New Research Building Auditorium
3900 Reservoir Rd NW
Washington D.C. 20057

In-person and virtual attendance available
CAMPEP Credits Offered

The Mid-Atlantic chapter of the AAPM and the DMV Proton Symposium group are combining our efforts this year to host a joint two-day conference on October 24th – 25th at MedStar Georgetown University Hospital in Washington D.C. The conference will focus on a broad range of topics in radiation therapy with a special focus on medical physics and proton radiotherapy. It will include the 2025 MAC-AAPM Young Investigator Symposium and the MAC-AAPM annual business meeting. We are also very excited to have an address from the current AAPM president Dr. M. Mahesh, who hails from our local chapter. CE credits will be granted via CAMPEP. Food and drinks will be provided. A Friday night social event will be held on the patio outside the auditorium with food and an open bar.

Registration

Please register for the meeting with the following link. The registration deadline is October 10th.
